Summary of purpose and/or change:

LB 1087 removes a certificate of title as satisfactory evidence of the right of possession of a newly purchased motor vehicle.

The bill amends § 60-376 by striking “certificate of title” from the list of satisfactory evidence that the dealer is entitled to possession.

Currently, upon proper demand by the authorities, a person in charge of the vehicle can show a duly executed bill of sale, a certificate of title, or other satisfactory evidence as proof that he or she has the right of possession. This evidence is required when a newly purchased vehicle is stopped during the thirty day grace period for licensing and registering the vehicle, or when the dealer is operating the vehicle before it has been purchased.

Explanation of amendments, if any:

Senator Deb Fischer, Chairperson
