Summary of purpose and/or changes: Legislative Bill 152 amends N.R.S. §71-1,200 to clarify the term “settlements” with regard to reporting laws for insurance companies. Under the bill, an insurer must report, among other things, payments made in settlements made prior to suit in which the patient releases any professional liability claim against the insurer, health care facility, health care service, or practitioner.

Explanation of amendments, if any:

Senator Brad Ashford, Chairperson
