

ONE HUNDREDTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION
LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 275

Introduced by Flood, 19; Engel, 17.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the process of creating legislative task forces, committees, and commissions. In recent years, there has been a proliferation of legislative task forces, committees, and commissions placed in statute. Several issues have been raised regarding composition, function, and constitutionality of some of these entities as an extension of the legislative branch of government.

This study shall examine the advantages and disadvantages of creating task forces, committees, and commissions by legislation rather than by legislative resolution. The entities to be studied shall include task forces, committees, and commissions that have legislative members serving on them and task forces, committees, and commissions which serve a legislative role or function. The study shall examine, but not be limited to, the following:

1. The role of legislative task forces, committees, and commissions;
2. Unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority;
3. The relationship between task forces, committees, and commissions to standing committee subject matter jurisdiction; and
4. Separation of powers concerns in terms of duties, membership, staffing, and funding.

This study shall also examine drafting requirements needed to make a legislative task force, committee, or commission operate effectively, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Funding, including identification of necessary costs, the approval process for spending funds, and determination as to whether a specific appropriation is required, even if only for travel expenses;

2. The appointment process, including whether non-legislators should be included, identification of appropriate appointing authority, effective dates, reporting requirements, and study of gender and regional balance;

3. Leadership and staffing, including the identification of the appropriate chairperson and how the chairperson will be selected, who will call the first meeting, and how staffing decisions will be determined; and

4. Final report requirements and the duration of a task force, committee, or commission.

This study shall also address how the Legislature would implement the findings of this study, including drafting recommended rule changes if determined necessary.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, SECOND SESSION:

1. That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the board shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.
