This bill would change juvenile penalty, records, service plan, probation sanctions, and truancy provisions.

The Supreme Court, Department of Education, and the Department of Health and Human Services all estimate no fiscal impact from the provisions of this bill.

The Crime Commission estimates a one-time programming cost of $102,000 in FY11-12 for initial changes to data received at NCJIS (Nebraska Criminal Justice Information System) as well as programming the various matches and reports. This cost will provide access for Probation, Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and the Omaha and Ralston school districts. There are also on-going costs of $21,600 per year to maintain the data. The Crime Commission notes only the Omaha and Ralston school districts contribute and utilize data from NCJIS. If more school districts choose to contribute data to NCJIS, the fiscal impact would be higher. The Crime Commission's response follows:

Section 6 of LB 463 requires the Crime Commission to provide information relative to a child who is absent more than ten days per year from school or is suspended from school. The Crime Commission operates a criminal justice information system (NCJIS) which collects information from Probation, Health and Human Services (HHS), and the Omaha and Ralston School Districts (as well as courts, Motor Vehicles, and criminal justice agencies).

LB 463 envisions NCJIS being the central hub to collect data on truancy and suspensions from school. The schools will send attendance information to NCJIS, and when a student has 10 absences or a suspension, a report on their status would be provided to the schools.

The estimated fiscal impact from LB 463 on the Crime Commission is: (1) A one-time programming cost of $102,000 in FY 11-12. This represents an estimate from our contracted programmers and will provide access for Probation, HHS, and the Omaha and Ralston school districts. The primary costs are initial changes to data received at NCJIS as well as programming the various matches and reports. (2) An on-going cost of $21,600 per year to maintain the data. Data will need to be regularly deleted and we will need to implement data purging according to school criteria.

Note: the Omaha and Ralston school districts are the only districts that contribute and utilize data from NCJIS. The above estimate includes those two school districts. There are 253 public school districts in Nebraska. If more school districts choose to contribute data to NCJIS, the fiscal impact would be higher.
