

ONE HUNDRED SECOND LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 226

Introduced by Hadley, 37; Sullivan, 41.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this interim study is to examine the feasibility of the State of Nebraska implementing a pilot program to incentivize individuals to move to rural counties which have experienced population loss according to the most recent federal decennial census.

This interim study shall attempt to produce a workable proposal to incentivize individuals to move to rural counties which have experienced population loss. This study shall include, but not be limited to, the impact of waiving tax liabilities for such individuals, funding mechanisms to alleviate the student debt of students moving into rural counties, and the examination of eligibility requirements pursuant to such an incentive.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Revenue and Education Committees of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct a joint interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committees shall upon the conclusion of the study make a report of their findings, together with their recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.
