Summary of purpose and/or changes:

Beginning on January 8, 2015, LB 217 changes the salaries of the constitutional officers to the following:

For a member of the Public Service Commission, the salary will be $90,000. The current salary is $75,000.

For the Governor, the salary will be $126,000. The current salary is $105,000.

For the Attorney General, the salary will be $114,000. The current salary is $95,000.

For the Secretary of State, the salary will be $102,000. The current salary is $85,000.

For the Auditor of Public Accounts, the salary will be $102,000. The current salary is $85,000.

For the State Treasurer, the salary will be $102,000. The current salary is $85,000.

For the Lieutenant Governor, the salary will be $90,000. The current salary is $75,000.

These officers last received pay increases in 2007.

Explanation of amendments:

The committee amendment removes from the bill the salary increase for members of the Public Service Commission.

Bill Avery, Chairperson
