This bill would change court jurisdiction relating to 17 year olds and young adults.

The following table summarizes the impact to the Supreme Court and the Department of Health and Human Services:

ITEMS	FY17	FY18	FY17	FY18
	Number of Positions		Expenditures
Supreme Court (services)			150,000	150,000
Child and Family Services Specialist	1.00	1.00	38,133	38,133
Benefits			7,992	7,992

Aid (court-ordered services)			263,670	287,640
TOTAL	1.00	1.00	481,104	505,074

The Supreme Court estimates $150,000 per year for increased services to youth up to 21 years old.

HHS states that this bill increases the juvenile court's jurisdiction over a person until 21 years old under certain circumstances. This could result in an increase of 21 wards. See the attached response of HHS for additional details.

The numbers in this fiscal note for HHS reflect the aid amount and funding for one instead of two positions shown in the HHS response. Based on the information provided by HHS and current statutory caseload requirements one position should be sufficient.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB 25 has a fiscal impact on the Department of Health and Human Services – Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS). Sec. 4 (page 7) of the bill provides for the extension of the juvenile court’s jurisdiction over a young adult until 21 years of age in certain circumstances. This provision would extend the length of time the wards continue under the care and custody of DCFS. DCFS would be required to provide case management and pay for court ordered services for these wards.

Based on the current number of wards that meet the eligibility criteria for extending the juvenile court’s jurisdiction, it is estimated that this bill would result in an increase of 21 wards. This would require DCFS to hire two Child and Family Services Specialists to provide case management services. The cost of these positions is estimated at $123,629 in SFY17 and $134,868 in SFY18.

The cost of court-ordered services that this population would incur is estimated at $263,670 in SFY17 and $287,640 in SFY18. To estimate this cost, this fiscal note uses a sample of 84 wards (aged 18) for which DHHS paid $282,000 in court-ordered services from July 1, 2014 through September 30, 2014. From this, a per capita monthly cost of $1,119 was determined. The monthly cost is estimated at $1,141 per ward after accounting for service provider rate increases that took effect 7/1/2015.

This fiscal note assumes 1) 100% general fund expenditures as these expenses are not expected to qualify for IV-E funding and 2) increased expenditures will begin to be incurred on August 1, 2016.

Explanation of Estimate:

Section 4 of LB25 allows juvenile court jurisdiction and services to youth 18 or older to be extended to 21 under certain conditions. The number of youth that will continue jurisdiction and type of services that will be extended is difficult to estimate. However, assuming a small percentage of youth receive services, a very preliminary estimate could be $150,000 (General Fund).
