2 mental health issues, and whether the matter was agreed or contested.

3 (d) The department shall publish the compiled information, organized
4 by judge, on at least an annual basis. Such published reports shall be

15 (2) The amount of time the child or children are scheduled to spend
16 with each parent, measured by the percentage of overnight stays per year.
17 If the same schedule does not apply to all children, a separate report
18 for each child shall be completed;

19 (3) The legal representation status of each party;

20 (4) Whether formal mediation was attempted for the issue of 21 parenting time and, if so, whether mediation was either partially or

30 or parenting time decisions and, if so, the parent as to whom they were 31 identified;

1       (8) Whether custody and parenting time were resolved by agreement of 2 the parties, by mediation, or after a contested trial; and
