LB 798 amends provisions relating to the State Lottery Act. The bill prohibits the Lottery Division of the Department of Revenue and any lottery contractor from disclosing the identity of any person awarded a prize of $300,000 or more except upon written authorization of such person. The bill also amends provisions relating to public records relating to the lottery.

The Department of Revenue estimates no impact to General Fund revenue and no cost to implement the bill. The Department of Health and Human Services, while acknowledging the instance of a prize winner over $300,000 owing child support is rare, estimates there could be some impact to the amount of child support garnished by DHHS from persons owing child support.

There is no basis to disagree with these estimates.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB 798 requires the anonymity of lottery winners of prizes greater than $300k.

While the instance of a prize winner winning over $300k and owing child support are low, there could be an impact to the amount of child support garnished from the person owing child support. Child support arrears are supposed to be deducted after taxes are satisfied.

In calendar year 2017 through 2019, $91,438 was collected through lottery intercepts by Child Support Enforcement.
