Any Fiscal Notes received from state agencies and political subdivisions are attached following the Legislative Fiscal Analyst Estimate.

LB294 exempts certain state agency deputy directors or acting deputy directors of state agencies and legal counsel of agencies that have a minimum of two hundred employees from the State Personnel System. Salaries of these employees will be fixed by the director with approval of the entity with oversight of the director or, if none, the governor. Until such time these employees elect to be employed at will, the employee shall be treated as continuing to participate in the State Personnel System.

LB294 has no fiscal impact.
