AM 3291 replaces the original bill with LB1265, LB1220 AM2915, LB1268 AM2541, LB902 AM2857, and LB832.

LB 1265 adds an amended version of the bill, modifying Section 25-3003 to require the Commission on Public Advocacy to set criteria and guidelines for legal service provision priorities and updating Section 25-3004 to mandate grants for legal service providers offering direct representation and audits to ensure compliance with funding rules.

The bill includes provisions from LB1220 AM2915, which proposes amendments to property law, particularly concerning personal representatives, small estate affidavits, payments, and transfers to minors, as well as the roles of trustees and conservators.

Provisions from LB1268 AM2541 would amend Section 40-101 so that each natural person residing in Nebraska would be exempt from judgment liens and from execution or forced sale, except as provided in Sections 40-101 to 40-116.

LB902 AM2857 aims to prohibit assisted-living facilities from requiring a third-party guarantee of payment.

LB832 allows the Governor to accept on behalf of the state full or partial cession or retrocession of federal juvenile jurisdiction when such has been offered by the appropriate federal authority.

There is no fiscal impact to the state.
