LB 83 aims to adopt the Uniform Community Property Disposition at Death act, changes provisions relating to court jurisdiction, provide severability and repeal original section.

Uniform Community Property Disposition at Death Act is intended for an individual in a marriage or other relationship under which community property could be acquired during the existences of the relationship and remains in existence at the time of death of either party in the relationship.

Expenditures:

The Supreme Court states there could be minimal fiscal impact to provide judicial education.
