KELLY: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Walz would like to recognize her granddaughter, Eva, from Fremont, Nebraska, who is in the north balcony. Please recognize Eva. Senator Briese for an announcement.

BRIESE: Thank, thank you, Mr. President. As you all know, this session has been particularly difficult on our Bill Drafting Office, as evidenced by the 812 bills that were introduced, along with a number of proposed constitutional amendments. I wanted to take a moment this morning to recognize the Bill Drafting staff for their work these past few weeks and months, without whom our work as a body would not be possible. First of all, I'm going to list these folks: Revisor of Statutes, Marcia McClurg; Assistant Revisor of Statutes, Micah Uher; Associate Revisors of Statutes: Mark Ludwig and Andrew Conroy; legal counsels and Bill Drafters: Matthew Pernicek, Loguen Blazek, Dana McNeil, Quinn Conzemius; Statute Technician, Jane Plettner; Assistant Statute Technicians: Suzanne Tesina, Brandi Thorn, Marilee McPherson, Gaylena Gibson, Saige Hastings, and Alexander Harrison. I think we all owe a deep debt of gratitude to these folks for their hard work and diligence in helping us get through this and making this place run. So let's show our appreciation to these folks with a round of applause for them. Thank you, Mr. President.

KELLY: Speaker Arch for an announcement.

ARCH: Thank you, Mr. President. It's Friday, and so this is the announcement is to anticipation of, of next week. So next Monday, we begin committee hearings at 1:30. A reminder that during the week of January 23, hearings will only take place in the afternoon. And then the following two weeks, January 30 through February 10, committees will hold public hearings both morning and afternoon following a 9 a.m. check-in on the floor. Monday and Tuesday of next week, January 23 and 24, also will be check-in days with a 10 a.m. start time. Wednesday, January 25, we will convene at 9:30 a.m. and at 10:00 Governor Pillen will deliver his State of the State address. The start time for Thursday and Friday will be 9 a.m. unless otherwise announced next week. Adjournment times for Thursday and Friday will be contingent upon any legislative business we may have to address, such as committee confirmation reports, motions to withdraw, etcetera. So that's a, a preview of, of what next week's schedule looks like. With respect to today's agenda, I'm scheduling a motion by Senator Lowe at his request to suspend Rule 3, Section 14, to permit the cancellation of a public hearing without seven days notice. The need for the hearing cancellation was brought to my attention after I published today's agenda. Because this is a hearing scheduled for Monday, it's preferable to have the cancellation finalized today to provide a few days additional notice to the public. And I'll let Senator Lowe explain the need for the cancellation. I'm just announcing my change to the agenda.
