This bill would allow persons eighteen years of age to make health care decisions and persons under nineteen years of age in correctional facilities to consent to medical and mental health care.

The Department of Correctional Services estimates no fiscal impact from this bill.

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) states the impact is indeterminable because it is unclear who is responsible for the payment of medical services for persons without guardian consent or in HHS custody.

This bill is similar to LB1036, 2020, and in that bill HHS estimated no fiscal impact.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB 89 would allow an individual 18 years of age or older to make his or her own health care decisions without the consent of his or her parent or guardian.

The fiscal impact to the Department of Health and Human Services is indeterminable. The statute is not clear as to who is responsible for the payment of necessary and elective medical services rendered for individuals without guardian consent or for individuals in the custody of the Department.
