LB 1255 adds the 911 Service System Act to the specific jurisdictional areas provided to the Public Service Commission (PSC).

Sections 6 and 7 provide definitions for “Telecommunications relay services” and Valid request” for the 911 Service System Act.

LB 1255 requires originating service providers (of 911 calls) to transmit all 911 calls to next-generation 911 or other points designated and complete al translation and routing to deliver all 911 calls to next-generation 911. These provisions shall take place no later than six months after the bill’s effective date or within six months after a valid request is made. The same requirements are to be met by providers of telecommunications relay services within one year of the bill’s effective date or one year after a valid request is made.

No fiscal impact.
