LB 439 is the Home Energy Alternatives Act.

Section 2 states the Legislative intent.

Section 3 provides definitions for the Act.

Sections 4 and 5 provide exceptions to section 6, which is discussed below.

Section 6 allows for restrictions on the development, placement, or installation of an energy alternative improvement when the grantor or governing body of the political subdivision declares that it is in the grantee's or public's health, safety, or welfare interests.

No fiscal impact to the state.
