

I feel that the current regulations are needed to assure a safe place for the citizens of Nebraska to live and work, we follow up on hundreds of complaints every year where the wiring is not safe or where someone has been injured or killed.